NEWS RELEASE

DATE: April 15 – July 1, 2011

CONTACT: Chalet Catlin, Cultural Arts Assistant - 831-242-8743

RELEASE: Immediate

Exhibit at the Monterey Conference Center

The City of Monterey and the Monterey Conference Center are pleased to announce the current Alvarado Gallery exhibit, Visual Conversations with Women in the Arts IV. The exhibit pairs Ann Thiermann's seventeen portraits of local outstanding female artists at work with individual two-dimensional and three-dimensional visual examples. The show includes pieces from Lynda Watson, Jody Alexander, Martha Casanave, Ann Dizikes, Susan Else, Jane Gregorius, Christianna Hunnicutt, Marilyn Kuksht, Margaret More, Rose Sellery, and Robynn Smith

A show for all the senses, viewers can obtain a unique insight into the diversity of tools, media, and scale of local work, and an intimate view of the beauty of each woman's hands at work, at the loom, keyboard, or easel.

Ann Thiermann, a member of the art faculty at Monterey Peninsula College and Cabrillo College, is an active landscape, figurative and California muralist. Her background in the arts, including her work as a pianist/organist in Santa Cruz since 1980, infuses her portraits of dancers and musicians with understanding and feeling.

The exhibit will be on display in the Alvarado Gallery, located at the Monterey Conference Center, One Portola Plaza April 15 through July 1, 2011.

Who: City of Monterey, Monterey Conference Center, Colton Hall Museum and Cultural Arts Commission

Where: Monterey Conference Center
Alvarado Gallery
One Portola Plaza
Monterey, CA 93940

What: Community Interest Exhibit

When: April 15 – July 1, 2011
8:00 AM to 4:30 p.m. / Mon-Fri

-30-

MUSEUM AND CULTURAL ARTS OFFICE
PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Exhibit at the Monterey Conference Center

The City of Monterey and the Monterey Conference Center are pleased to announce the current Alvarado Gallery exhibit, Visual Conversations with Women in the Arts IV. The exhibit pairs Ann Thiermann's seventeen portraits of local outstanding female artists at work with individual two-dimensional and three-dimensional visual examples. The show includes pieces from Lynda Watson, Jody Alexander, Martha Casanave, Ann Dizikes, Susan Else, Jane Gregorius, Christianna Hunnicutt, Marilyn Kuksht, Margaret More, Rose Sellery, and Robynn Smith

A show for all the senses, viewers can obtain a unique insight into the diversity of tools, media, and scale of local work, and an intimate view of the beauty of each woman's hands at work, at the loom, keyboard, or easel.

Ann Thiermann, a member of the art faculty at Monterey Peninsula College and Cabrillo College, is an active landscape, figurative and California muralist. Her background in the arts, including her work as a pianist/organist in Santa Cruz since 1980, infuses her portraits of dancers and musicians with understanding and feeling.

The exhibit will be on display in the Alvarado Gallery, located at the Monterey Conference Center, One Portola Plaza April 15 through July 1, 2011.

Who: City of Monterey, Monterey Conference Center, Colton Hall Museum and Cultural Arts Commission

What: Community Interest Exhibit

When: April 15 – July 1, 2011
8:00 AM to 4:30 p.m. / Mon-Fri

Where: Monterey Conference Center
Alvarado Gallery
One Portola Plaza
Monterey, CA 93940

-30-

MUSEUM AND CULTURAL ARTS OFFICE
PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENT

Exhibit at the Monterey Conference Center

The City of Monterey and the Monterey Conference Center are pleased to announce the current Alvarado Gallery exhibit, Visual Conversations with Women in the Arts IV. The exhibit pairs Ann Thiermann's seventeen portraits of local outstanding female artists at work with individual two-dimensional and three-dimensional visual examples. The show includes pieces from Lynda Watson, Jody Alexander, Martha Casanave, Ann Dizikes, Susan Else, Jane Gregorius, Christianna Hunnicutt, Marilyn Kuksht, Margaret More, Rose Sellery, and Robynn Smith

A show for all the senses, viewers can obtain a unique insight into the diversity of tools, media, and scale of local work, and an intimate view of the beauty of each woman's hands at work, at the loom, keyboard, or easel.

Ann Thiermann, a member of the art faculty at Monterey Peninsula College and Cabrillo College, is an active landscape, figurative and California muralist. Her background in the arts, including her work as a pianist/organist in Santa Cruz since 1980, infuses her portraits of dancers and musicians with understanding and feeling.

The exhibit will be on display in the Alvarado Gallery, located at the Monterey Conference Center, One Portola Plaza April 15 through July 1, 2011.

Who: City of Monterey, Monterey Conference Center, Colton Hall Museum and Cultural Arts Commission

What: Community Interest Exhibit

When: April 15 – July 1, 2011
8:00 AM to 4:30 p.m. / Mon-Fri

Where: Monterey Conference Center
Alvarado Gallery
One Portola Plaza
Monterey, CA 93940

-30-