

FIDUCIARY FUND

The City only has one fiduciary fund, an agency fund. This fund is used to account for assets held by the City as an agent for individuals, private organizations, and other governments. The financial activities of these funds are excluded from the Entity-wide financial statements, but are presented in a separate Fiduciary Fund financial statement later in this report.