Felony Evading Arrest

On July 24, 2020 at approximately 2317 hours, Monterey Police Officers were dispatched to reports of a possible shooting in the area of Hannon and Toyon. Officers arrived on scene and located a group of males who appeared to be in a heated argument.

One of the males, later identified as Kevin Flores-Castillo, 22, of Foresthill, ran to a pickup truck that was blocking the roadway. Flores-Castillo fled the scene in the pickup truck at a high rate of speed. Monterey Police Officers pursued Flores-Castillo. Flores-Castillo struck the curb at Casa nova and Kolb, popping one of the truck’s tires. He then continued onto Casa nova and struck a telephone pole. Flores-Castillo’s heavily damaged vehicle continued on Casa nova until he reached the dead-end of the 1000 block of Casa nova.

Flores-Castillo exited his vehicle and began walking away from the vehicle. The officers order Flores-Castillo to stop and he complied. He was arrested without incident.

Flores-Castillo was also found to be under the influence of alcohol. He was arrested for felony evading and driving under the influence of alcohol. He was transported to the Monterey County Jail and his bail was set at $30,000.

Officers searched the area where the disturbance occurred and did not locate evidence of a shooting. At this time, it is unknown if a shooting actually occurred. Anyone with information is asked the call the Monterey Police Department at (831) 646-3830.
